THE traditional Rushbearing festival was celebrated in Lymm on Sunday.

Morris dancers, members of Lymm Women's Institute, Lymm Jubilee Women's Institute and Lymm Youth Club were joined by parish councillors and Mayor Clr Peter Carey on the day.

The procession made its way through the village from Pepper Street to St Mary's Church.

Carrying rushes, the tradition dates back to the Middle Ages when reeds and rushes were put on the floor of buildings to prepare for the winter.

The procession was led by Clr Carey and Clr Su Williams, from Lymm Parish Council.
